

Les Roseaux de Pencadenic

bed and breakfast

Page "Accueil"

We'll welcome you into our cosy wooden house in Tour du Parc; a discreet little village at the entrance of the Rhuys Peninsula (Presqu'île de Rhuys).

Take advantage of the calm, the view that changes with the tides, and enjoy the GR34, the famous « sentier des douaniers » walking path which passes the garden. You'll be near the oyster farms of Pencadenic, the village centre, the beach, the rambling hiker paths, and the many activities that you can find locally.

The Rhuys peninsula (Presqu'île de Rhuys) can be found south of Vannes and is situated between the Morbihan gulf (Golfe du Morbihan) and the sea.

Take a walk along the bank of the Penerf canal (next to Sarzeau) on the Presqu'île de Rhuys, Gulf of Morbihan, South Brittany, where the Parc Naturel washed by the tides, will beguile you.

During your stroll you'll come across our lovely wooden home that we designed and built ourselves, and, in which we both live and welcome guests.

Our house has 5 separate ground floor rooms with their own private shower, wc, & small patio. The shared patio leads to the dining room and its terrace with garden.

There you can have breakfast or supper whilst enjoying the view of the changing sea tides.

On Sunday, Monday, Wednesday, & Friday evenings you can eat at our « table d'hôtes » dining room. You must reserve at least the night before and we're sure you'll enjoy our simple family cooking in convivial surroundings whilst discovering the local produce (our speciality is fish & seafood). The menu is fixed, changes daily, and costs 23€ per person (wine included).

Where possible we prefer that reservations for the « table d'hotes » are for at least four people.

Excluding French national holidays and promotions (contact us for details).

There is no « table d'hotes » between 15th November & 31st March, but a small kitchen area is available to guests should they wish to cook themselves.
